Study Options	Students usually need to take at least 50% of their courses within their admitting department, but may choose up to 50% as electives from other departments (subject to availability, course tutor approval and meeting any prerequisites). There are however some instances where 100% of courses must be taken within the admitting department. Please consult the following webpage for further information on study options: https://www.ucl.ac.uk/prospective-students/study-abroad-at-ucl/study-options
Course Catalogue	Please see: https://www.ucl.ac.uk/prospective-students/study-abroad-at-ucl/subjects
Course Load	Students must take courses that total 60 UCL credits per semester (30 ECTS/16 US Credits) which is typically 4 courses per semester and 120 credits/60 ECTS/32 US credits for the full year.
Undergraduate (BA) Modules (Courses) Department: School of European Languages, Culture and Society (SELCS)	Students must take a minimum of 50% of their programme of study (credits per semester) in SELCS. They can take the remaining 50% in SELCS or in other UCL departments, subject to the availability of places and provided they meet the prerequisites for modules they wish to attend. All students are expected to take modules worth maximum 60 UCL credits per semester (30 ECTS credits). For example, 4 modules worth 15 UCL credits (7.5 ECTS) each. If approved by home university, students may take a reduced number of credits - minimum 45 UCL credits (22.5 ECTS) per semester. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ A full list of available SELCS modules will be available in summer. ✓ A list of modules available in the current year (including links to module descriptions) and other useful information for incoming students can be found here: http://www.ucl.ac.uk/selcs/affiliates/undergraduate <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provisional registration (pre-registration) on SELCS modules begins in June/July (for September starters) or November (for January starters). • Final module registration takes place when students arrive at UCL, during Orientation Programme Please consult the following webpage for further information on study options: https://www.ucl.ac.uk/prospective-students/study-abroad-at-ucl/study-options
BASc Arts and Sciences	The Arts and Sciences (BASc) degrees launched in 2012 and are at the forefront of the new wave of liberal arts and sciences degrees in the UK. The degree gives you the opportunity to create your own bespoke programme incorporating both arts and sciences subjects and study innovative Core modules to enhance the

	link between disciplines. You will study modules across the breadth of UCL's world class expertise and achieve a depth of knowledge needed to thrive in our global society. BASc is a unique Liberal Arts and Sciences programme at UCL, in which students take an interdisciplinary mix of courses in two of four pathways: Health and Environment, Sciences and Engineering, Cultures, and Societies. Students must also take a core language for the duration of their degree. Students studying at BASc for their year abroad are required to take at least 50% of their courses within BASc, from the list I have attached, and can take the other 50% outside of the department. You can find more information about our programme at this website.
Accommodation	Information about housing options: https://www.ucl.ac.uk/accommodation/prospective-students Please note that accommodation is only guaranteed for students who are spending a full academic year at UCL, provided they have firmly accepted their offer to study at UCL and applied by the deadline. Students coming to UCL for less than a full year may be allocated housing, but this cannot be guaranteed.
Cost of Living	Estimates for this will vary, as each student will have different personal tastes and circumstances, but a total of £290 per week is considered a reasonable average. Please consult the following webpage for more information: https://www.ucl.ac.uk/students/funding/manage-your-money/study-expenses
Support for International Students	Information about UCL's International Student Orientation Programme (ISOP) and support for international students, including healthcare: https://www.ucl.ac.uk/students/international-students Information about the visa application process: https://www.ucl.ac.uk/students/immigration-and-visas

Council tax	Council tax is a system of local taxation collected by local authorities. Please look at the specific pages about council tax for further information about exemption as a student. Please note that you are only eligible for council tax exemption from the official start date of your course which can be found on your Statement of Student Status letter. This means that if you move into your accommodation before the official start date of your course, you will have to pay council tax for this period of time.
Health advice	Students who are making an application for a visa of more than 6 months will be required to pay an immigration health surcharge for access to the NHS whilst on their studies in the UK. The IHS is mandatory for anyone wishing to enter the UK to study on a Tier 4 visa. From 6 April 2016 nationals of Australia and New Zealand are also required to pay the surcharge and are no longer exempt. The IHS will allow you to access the NHS in the same way as a permanent UK resident. You do not need to pay the IHS if you are an EU/EEA student or if you are studying in the UK with a short-term study visa. For more information about this please see the UCL Immigration and Visa page, and the UKVI website
